Len Stuby

March 3, 1974

"Death is never easy,
it is always a shock
and is always hard to face.
But it is especially hard to accept in a teacher and friend.

For death forces us to examine ourselves-- to do some soul-searching and thinking about what we're here for,
what is life for.
What does it mean?"
So began the memorial services for one of our teachers,
Len Stuby.

Little more need be said as to how deeply it affected us all-- the students, the faculty, the administration, and the friends at ATHS.

Behind the Scenes and

The drama department decided to try something different this year with "Six Scenes for a Spring Evening." In addition to the four pictured were "Diary of Anne Frank," and "Ugly Duckling." Because of the six scenes, scenery had to be changed for each one. Susie Miles, Becky Ackerman, and Dean Davies did a fine job of changing scenery as well as entertaining the audience with their comic antics.

Each scene was cast and directed by a student from the acting class under the supervision of our student teacher, Miss Grennan and Mrs. Rohrback.

The evening seemed to be a success with the audience as well as the cast and crews.

The prom was held on May 4 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Rantoul. The evening began with a dance with music provided by Reenie and Company. After the dance, a movie was shown. The prom came to an end with a breakfast enjoyed by all.

To the Seniors

On winged feet the four years pass
 And now we honor our Senior class.
 Beyond these walls, this town, this state
 A whole new world now lies in wait.
 You've much to learn, we're often told Wisdom to gain before you're old
 But tonight--before you turn and go
 Your separate ways, as well we know
 Enjoy tihs place, these hours, this school
 In memory they'll return to you.

P ick this magic moment,
R each out, touch this time,
E tch a flowered memory,
C reate a mystic minute
I n this our one last time.
O nce more we share together
U nder shades of night, S weet sad moments

a s we two pass this way, n ever understanding that d reams will never fade.

F or our hearts have filled
E ach memory
W hich time can never change.

McElhoe breaks record dramatically

By REGGIE HALL

and JIM YOHO

of The C-N Sports Staff

ROSSVILLE — Notes and quotes from the Rossville Holiday Basketball Tournament:

Cecil McElhoe finally did it. Armstrong's 5-10 junior guard broke the tournament scoring record of 38 points set by Rodney Wyss of Cissna Park in 1972. And he did it in breathtaking fashion.

McElhoe had 37 points with five seconds remaining in the game and a one and bonus free throw. But he missed the first shot and the ball bounded into the hands of Clifton Central's Mike Brouillet.

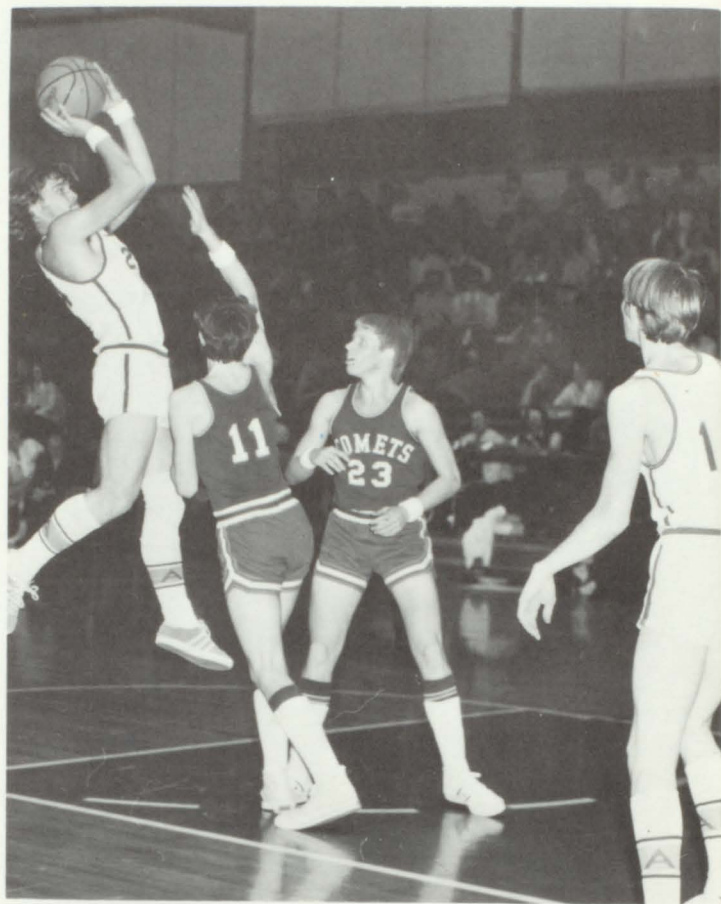

Aaron Sieberns quickly fouled Brouillet and the Comets' forward converted two free throws. Four seconds remained.

Dave Ludwig took the inbounds pass and hooked the ball downcourt. McElhoe grabbed the long pass, dribbled once and hit the shot at the buzzer to establish the scoring mark. In heroic fashion he was carried off the floor on his teammates' shoulders.

"Coach (Bob) Bezely told me with about a minute left that I had a crack at the record. I didn't realize at the time that I had that many points," said McElhoe.

"I'm really tired, but I feel great."

Cecil McElhoe taking one of his record-breaking shots.
